

Leasing Complete for New Del Amo Medical Center

The first phase of the new Del Amo Medical Building has now been completed and leased, according to Goldwell, Baker & Co., exclusive leasing agents of the project. The first phase of the structure includes a 32,000 square foot building with facilities for 29 doctors' suites.

Incorporated in the master plan is another unit of 35,000 square feet which has room for the Del Amo Pharmacy which will be operated by Chester A. Hooper, Jr., of Torrance. Construction on the twin unit will get under way on the site shortly.

The five acre medical center site was ground leased by the Hawthorne Medical Building, a California corporation, according to Gene Voorhees, legal counsel for the developers. The lease is for 55 years. The center is 100 per cent leased. Contractor for the first phase was Carter Co. Coldwell, Banker & Co. handled the financing and insuring of the project.

Junior Achievement Center Gets Spruced Up for Fall Programs

During the past few weeks local high school students in the Centinela area have been busily engaged in painting and preparing their Junior Achievement Center in Hawthorne for the new program year starting in the fall. Girls attired in bluejeans and sweaters, boys in overalls and sweat-shirts work side by side, paint dripping from their brushes, perspiration from their brows.

At the Junior Achievement Hawthorne Business Center, located at 831 N. Prairie Ave., teenagers learn how to organize and operate their own J.A. companies. This learn by doing program enables the high school student to become acquainted with the American free enterprise system. Junior Achievement is a nation wide program established by business, educational and civic

Calvary Hosts Two Speakers at Sunday Services

The Rev. Ted S. Mayberry, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ontario, Ore., will preach at the duplicate 8:30 and 11 a.m. Sunday services at the Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd. The Rev. Mr. Mayberry is a graduate of the Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary of Philadelphia. He is the son of Ralph L. Mayberry, retired Executive Secretary of the Los Angeles Baptist City Mission Society. The Rev. Mr. Mayberry and his church broadcast their Sunday morning services throughout eastern Oregon and western Idaho each week.

At the 7:30 p.m. services Mrs. Ayako Hino of Japan will speak at the "Missionary Night" program. Mrs. Hino is a former student of Miss Winifred Acock, retired missionary from Japan who is a former resident of Gardena. Miss Acock will accompany Mrs. Hino, who is enroute to Japan after attending the Baptist World Congress at Rio de Janeiro.

Choral Group Auditions Scheduled

Los Cancioneros, South Bay Area mixed chorus, will meet for the first rehearsal of its 1960-61 season on Tuesday, Sept. 13, at 8 p.m. in the El Retiro Park Clubhouse. This meeting will mark the beginning of the group's 12th year as a musical organization.

Mrs. Thomas H. Mabin of Rolling Hills, director of the chorus, will conduct auditions for new members on Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 29 and 30, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Beckman, 820 Calle de Arboles, Hollywood Riviera. This season's choral activities, as outlined by Mrs. Mabin, will include a full concert of Christmas music to be followed in February by a performance of Honegger's "King David," with orchestra, at the El Camino Campus Theatre. This concert will be a continuation of the Los Cancioneros Music Scholarship program inaugurated by the chorus last year.

Later in the season the group will present an informal "fun" concert in addition to its customary engagements throughout the community.

Singers desiring an audition may contact Mrs. Mabin at FR 7-2601 or Mrs. Walter Holloway at FR 5-1633 for an appointment.

Picnic Slated
